By deleting the following language from the amendatory language of Section 27 of the amendment :

()(1) Whenever any bill is introduced in the general assembly proposing to amend this chapter or to make any change in the workers' compensation law, or to make any change in the law which may have a financial or other substantive impact on the administration of the workers' compensation law, the bill shall be referred to the council and to a standing committee; provided, subject to subdivision (2) of this subsection, that no action shall be taken on the bill by the standing committee until the council reports its recommendation. The council's review of bills relating to workers' compensation should include, but not be limited to, bills that propose to amend title 50, chapters 6 and 9, and title 56, chapters 5 and 47.

(2) All bills referred to the council shall be reported back to the standing committee to which they were assigned no later than eight (8) weeks after the later of the dates adopted by the house of representatives or the senate for cutting off the introduction of new bills with appropriate amendments attached. If the council has not reported back concerning a bill within such time, the standing committee is free to consider the bill without such report.

And by substituting instead the following:

() The advisory council shall attend each meeting of the house consumer and employee affairs committee.
